

WINE ENTHUSIAST®

M A G A Z I N E

86 VALDIVIESO ECLAT 2004

Here's an unusual mix of Syrah and Carignan that runs lean and racy. The nose offers more spice and leather than ripeness, while the palate is downright tangy and teetering on sharp. Freshness and power are not issues; but it might be too tangy and citrusy for anyone expecting a beefy, extracted wine.
