

ROCCHÉ COSTAMAGNA

Winery Profile

Costamagna is the family name and Rocche is the name of the specific vineyard area, Rocche id la Morra, in which all the winery's vines are located. The Costamagna family have been producing since the year 1841. Son, Alessandro, now oversees all aspects of the growing and winemaking process in the beautiful subterranean winery, built into the side of a vineyard hill in the wine rich village of La Morra. Although primarily known for their majestic long lived Barolo, the winery is quickly becoming highly regarded as a premier producer of Barbera D'Alba.

ROCCHÉ COSTAMAGNA LANGHE ARNEIS D.O.C.

Arneis is a white grape variety, cultivated in the hills of the Piedmont region. This wine has an intense yellow color with an aroma that is delicate, fresh and fruity. Dry and well balanced, it is perfect complement to risotto and fish dishes.
(ABV 13%)

ROCCHÉ COSTAMAGNA DOLCETTO D'ALBA

This wine has a deep ruby red color with violet hues. Barrel aged for 5 months to add structure and complexity. Dark colored, showing violet, black cherry and raspberry flavors. Medium bodied with soft tannins.
(ABV 12.5%)

ROCCHES COSTAMAGNA

ROCCHES COSTAMAGNA BARBERA D'ALBA D.O.C.

This wine is certainly the most astonishing of all the local vines. It is barrel aged for 12 months and has chocolate, berry and vanilla aromas and flavors. Medium in body, round tannins and a long tasty finish. (ABV 13.5%)

ROCCHES COSTAMAGNA BAROLO

This wine is the most noble and most famous wine of the locality. Barrel aged for 24 months with 9 months of bottle aging before release. Plenty of black cherry, toasted oak, violet and chocolate flavors. Full and velvety with a long rich finish. (ABV 13.5%)

